

66, Rue de Verdun
11000 Carcassonne - France
Tel. 04 68 26 92 47
Fax.04 68 26 92 54
E-mail: nathalie.cielbleu@orange.fr
site: www.voyages-carcassonne.com

WEEK-END MEDIEVAL 2 DAYS/1 NIGHT

Especially designed for conferences, this short stay offers you an enchanting venue and medieval shows.

DAY 1: INTRODUCTION TO WINE-TASTING AND MEDIEVAL MEALS

Reception at the end of the morning at the castle. Settling into your rooms. Built in 6th century, this superb monument is situated in an exceptional environment in the heart of the Cathar Country, close to Carcassonne. It witnessed the religious wars between Protestants and Catholics. The decor of the rooms combines refinement and medieval charm. The conference rooms contain majestic Renaissance chimneys. A marvellous setting for a weekend in our beautiful area.

Welcome drinks with a medieval show followed by a gourmet lunch.

Sample menu:

Duck foie gras marinated with figs

Sea-bream baked with fine sea salt

Vegetable Piperade

Exotic fruit crumble,

Passionfruit ice cream

After lunch, the group meets at the conference room for an afternoon of work.

Oenological initiation at Limoux (known for its “sparkling wines”) with your private oenologist; you will discover the variety of vintage labels in our region, as well as the special features of the wines of Aude. During this “guided” wine tasting, the finer points of wine-growing in the Aude and techniques for recognising the qualities of a wine will be explained to you: you will discover all the secrets of our fine wines.

ReturnRReturn to the hotel, where medieval meal will be served to you. Throughout the meal, a troop of professional acrobats will take you back to another epoch, in a setting that lends itself perfectly to fire eaters and professional jugglers. You will be perhaps selected to enter the Fakir’s Boxan unforgettable experience. Night at the hotel.

DAY 2 TREASURE HUNT

After breakfast, you go to the City of Carcassonne to play characters straight out of the Middle Ages, in costume, in a treasure hunt where you explore the City as part of a game. As you seek answers to the clues, you meet historical characters and have to solve the riddles by criss-crossing the City.

At the end of this adventure you will lunch in a gourmet restaurant of the City, which will provide a meal full of regional specialties.

Departure

PRICE PER PERSON...(Us to consult) INCLUDING TAXES On the basis of 30 participants

THIS PRICE INCLUDES:

- Accommodation in a 3-star castle (based on a double room)
- Provision of a conference room, with a tea break included
- Meals from lunch on day 1 to lunch on day 2 (including 1/4l of wine; water)
- Luxury coach
- Services of bilingual tour guides for the entire stay
- Wine tasting at Limoux with the services of a private oenologist
- Medieval Evening with entertainment
- Treasure hunt

THIS PRICE DOES NOT INCLUDE:

- Tourist tax
- Supplement for individual room (Us to consult)
- Personal expenses
- Travel to and from Carcassonne

*This program is subject to availability at booking.